The Scoop on the Online Competition

As part of this year's Battle of the Bands we are going to be filming a video/online documentary in a reality format that will allow the bands to compete for the honor of having the best online presence. Weekly episodes will be posted on the Pasco Libraries' MySpace page at <http://www.myspace.com/pascolibraries>.

Viewers can join us and watch each of the bands do their thing, then have the opportunity to vote on their favorite band in each episode. We'll have a new winner each week and a final champion at the end, based on a combined score total from all episodes. A valuable prize will be awarded to the online winner.

Below is the episode schedule and a brief summary of each to prepare you for this daunting competition. We will be filming episodes during January & early February. Filming dates will be scheduled once your band has been accepted into the Battle. The first episodes will be posted online beginning in February.

Episode 1: Band Interview - Each band will have a few minutes to tell the world about themselves and their music.

Episode 2: PSA - Each band gets a chance to promote any social cause, event, idea or organization that they think others should be aware of. Hey, this is a library and we have to be somewhat educational here.

Episode 3: Performance Videos - This is where we show a short video clip of each band doing their thing. This will be filmed live in concert at one of our libraries.

Episode 4: Library Warrior Part 1 - If you can imagine a competition that combines Fear Factor, Silent Library, and American Idol then you'll have a really good idea what this episode will be like.

Episode 5: Library Warrior Part 2 - Just like Part 1, except it's Part 2.

Episode 6: Bloopers Reels/Last Plug - We'll display all the bloopers and blunders from all the filming as well as give the bands a last chance to plug themselves to the world.
