

Pasco County Library System Policy Manual

Section: Administration

Policy Title: Holiday Programs

Effective Date: August 2005

Philosophy:

The policy for holiday programs will be based on the philosophy of the policy for holiday displays.

General Guidelines:

- Holiday programs presented by the Library should be secular in nature. Programs that have a historical perspective and/or those based on secular literature about the holiday are acceptable.
- Sets, costumes, props, or other trappings should follow the guidelines for holiday display.
- Holiday music of a secular nature may be played in coordination with the program.
